

A still life arrangement of various objects. In the foreground, there are several red tomatoes and a yellow bell pepper. Behind them, a stack of white plates is visible. To the left, a blue ceramic jar with a white floral pattern holds several silver spoons. Next to it is a bottle of olive oil with a dark cap and a label featuring a bunch of grapes. To the right, another bottle of olive oil with a dark cap and a label featuring a bunch of grapes is visible. In the background, a stack of white plates is visible, and a large, dark, textured object, possibly a piece of wood or a large bowl, is hanging from the top. The overall scene is a still life composition with various kitchen and dining items.
